

Comfort for Christians: With devotional aids

A. W. Pink in his introduction says, God has a people, the objects of His special favor: a company whom He has taken into such intimate relationship with Himself that He calls them My people. Often they are disconsolate because of their natural corruptions, the temptations of Satan, the cruel treatment of the world, the low state of Christ's cause on earth. The God of all comfort (II Cor. 1:3) is very tender toward them, and it is His revealed will that His servants should bind up the broken-hearted and pour the balm of Gilead into their wounds. What cause we have to exclaim Who is a God like unto Thee!, (Micah 7:18), who has provided for the comfort of those who were rebels against His government and transgressors of His Law. May it please Him to use His Word as expounded in this book to speak peace to afflicted souls today, and the glory shall be His alone. Comfort for Christians also includes these devotional aids: Daily Bread- A calendar for reading through the Bible in a year, with directions by Robert Murray McCheyne, and My Prayer Requests and God's Answers, a suggested register of petitions.
