

Valley of the Shadow

Valley of the Shadow is the story of Jeremiah Stone who flees Detroit after a series of intense personal tragedies. He returns to the south where he thinks living will be easier. But Jeremiah is wrong, for the town of Jerusalem Mills, Tennessee is home to an ancient evil that manipulates and plays with him. This evil isn't the only problem for Jeremiah, he's faced with blatant southern racism, and the desire to be a strong single father who can raise his kids, teen-age Larissa and young Anton, properly. Dark ghosts of malevolent evil, that fed on historical acts of genocide against native Americans and blacks, rise up once again in the small town, and Jeremiah must confront not only them, but his own fading faith. Too many people are depending on Jeremiah to be strong enough, but can he be? Valley of the Shadow Neil Gaiman meets Alice Walker and Zora Neale Hurston who explore the wickedness of racism and supernatural evil. Adult (horror/supernatural dark fantasy)
